TO ALL IAMAW MEMBERS AIR CANADA - TMOS OFF-DUTY STATUS GRIEVANCE UPDATE

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Those affected by the Off-Duty Status (ODS) grievance have been waiting patiently for this matter to be concluded. As a re-cap, your Union successfully argued Air Canada's illegitimate invocation of a second "wave" of ODS starting in January 2021.

Your Union filed a grievance challenging the employer's misuse of Article 20.14 and that grievance was upheld at Arbitration in late 2021. Subsequently, Air Canada brought that decision for Judicial Review. In September 2022, the review panel dismissed the company's application and costs were awarded to the Union.

Since that time District Lodge 140 has followed up with the company ad nauseam. The list of affected Members has been vetted and we have been advised sent to Payroll for processing.

The matter is now with Payroll in Winnipeg. It is our understanding that such a reconciliation will take some time to complete, but we continue to follow up with Labour Relations on a regular basis.

As always we thank you for your incredible patience and support.

In solidarity,
