Hello Brothers and Sisters,

Re: GSE, ASE, CRE – Advisory Sub-Committee Communication

Your Bargaining Advisory Sub-Committee members came together January 12 – 17, 2025, for training and brainstorming for the upcoming contract negotiations. We had a great week of discussion and planning. During this time both GSE Mechanics and ACM AMEs came together to brainstorm many common items, as well as items that pertain to each department separately.

We spent several days in class with experienced economists and skilled negotiators, gaining valuable insights and strategies to support our efforts. There will be more communication, updates, as well as survey coming in the near future from the Sub-Committee group and your Union.

We look forward to bringing all the skilled trades voices and concerns to the table, and together, we will work towards a strong and industry-leading agreement.

In solidarity, your Sub-Committee,

Mark Pozzobon
Harry Bohan
Tar Bachu
Christopher Robinson
Wade Mineault
